

About Lutheran Child and Family Services (LCFS)

Founded in 1883, LCFS has served the community for over 140 years. LCFS currently offers a variety of programs of compassionate care and counsel to children and families

Lutherwood Residential Treatment Center offers residential programming for youth ages 6-21 who have experienced trauma & require intensive behavioral health care services, including IMPACT, a program within Lutherwood dedicated to serving youth survivors of human trafficking and Emergency Shelter Care, which provides a safe haven for youth ages 12-18 who need emergency shelter from dangerous situations

Trinity House Independent Living Group Home serves young men ages 14-21 to promote life skills development

Pando Aspen Grove of Community Heights (Pando) Permanent Supportive Housing Program provides housing as well as an array of voluntary supportive services for youth who have experienced homelessness with a priority for those young people who have been involved in the child welfare/foster care system

The Sharing Place Food Pantry is a material assistance program that provides food to families in need on the east side of Indianapolis, and offers adjunct services including The Emergency Diaper Dispensary and The Christmas Store

Community Based Programs provide home-based therapeutic services including family preservation, care coordination/case management, and counseling

INSPIRE offers 2Gen Services to youth and their adult caregivers to assist with improved health, enhanced educational and career opportunities, financial stability, and expanded social capital

SEED provides spiritual growth services & assessments offered to residents; programming includes voluntary weekly chapel service & Bible study
